

HELLS CANYON 2023

(NOTE: This is not an organized run.) Corrections/updates in RED below

WHEN: SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 2023

The first boat will leave Upper Pittsburgh Landing a little after 7:00 am pacific standard time.

- The boat will make two trips for the shorter run.
  - Only the first trip will drop off at Granite Creek (about 26.5 miles).
  - Those who do not fit on the first trip will go on the second trip, that will leave around 8:15 am pacific standard time

This is a trail run through Hells Canyon (totally unsupported and without any aid stations).

- Granite Creek Run: From just below Hells Canyon Dam at Granite Creek to Upper Pittsburgh Landing - about 26.5 miles.
- Sheep Creek Run: From about halfway to Granite Creek to Upper Pittsburgh Landing - about 14.5 miles

You must run/hike self-contained.

- Bring with you all water, headlamp, food, clothing and first aid you might need. (Headlamp always a good idea to have!)
- Carry out your wrappers, garbage, etc. (Please always practice “leave no trace”)

It is reasonable to assume you will not get a cell signal anywhere along the trail.

The price for the boat trip to the trailhead costs $75.00 per person. Payment will be made directly to the boat captain, so bring payment in correct cash!

There is an online waiver to be signed for our boat captain prior to the trip:

On your way in to the Canyon, you can also stop by Hammer Down River Excursions office (145 River St, White Bird, ID 83554) they also have other amazing trips and sweet SWAG to purchase. We should have copies of the waiver (but preferably you do it online) at the potluck dinner as well as around the fire pit on the morning of the run.

It is important that we know how many people plan to participate in this year’s run for the boats, so RSVP BEFORE MONDAY MARCH 6, 2023

For those that camp near Upper Pittsburgh Landing the night before (or that want to stop by), there will be a potluck dinner and campfire. We always have a potluck dinner Friday, please bring something to share! Tom will be providing spaghetti and veggie packed meatless sauce. John will have some tasty Paleo Power Food. Those are just the beginning – expect even more food. We’d love to see this part grow.
